

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

THE BULLETIN OF THE

THE LIBRARY

The steady growth of the Library is encouraging, but it is nevertheless a fact that our library is already quite inadequate for the needs of the Museum staff and the calls made upon it by visitors.

Important gifts of photographs and lantern-slides will be noted below, the large collection of slides from Mr. Charles W. Wason being of particular benefit just at this time. Does some member have for us the following items to contribute?

Murray Handbook for travellers in Egypt;
Murray Handbook for travellers in Japan;
Baedeker Guide to the Mediterranean;
Catalogues of European galleries;
Back numbers of National Geographic Magazine;
Files of any art magazine;
Alinari's Photograph catalogue;
Any good photographs or lantern-slides.

The collection of photographs, lantern-slides and postcards have been added to by gifts as follows:

PHOTOGRAPHS
From Baldwin Coolidge, Boston	119
From Mrs. E. F. Cushing	390
From Frank J. Pool	105
From Miss Harriet Stevens	1300
From Miss Clara Urann	33
LANTERN-SLIDES
From Charles W. Wason	990
POSTCARDS
From Mrs. E. A. Conger	721
From Commissioner for Argentine Republic	450
From Mrs. Mary A. Springer	122
From F. Allen Whiting	43

ACCESSIONS

The list of accessions to the Library and the Museum Collections is too long to be included in this issue, but will follow in an early number. From now on it is hoped to publish the Bulletin monthly, except during the summer months, and to make it of increasing importance, not only as a record of the activities of the Museum, but for its descriptive articles as well.
